MEMORANDUM FOR: USIB and IRAC Principals

SUBJECT : Intelligence Community Staff Briefing

1. The functioning of the Intelligence Community and, in particular, the concept, composition and activities of the DCI's Intelligence Community Staff have changed considerably in the past year. A 30-minute briefing has been prepared which describes these changes and includes such matters as the Key Intelligence Questions and the KIQ evaluation program, the interrelationships between the IC Staff and the National Intelligence Officers, and the role of new entities such as the Intelligence Resources Advisory Committee (IRAC).
